"The work of choosing the delegation is not yet completed. This much can be said, however: No man will be chosen to serve on it that has not influence and character. For it should be known that the members have the most vital interests of the colored race at stake, and it is absolutely necessary that President Harrison should be impressed by stake, and 't is absolutely necessary that President Harrison should be impressed by the strength and intelligence of those who will speak for the negro. I cannot tell you mow who will constitute the committee, but among those who have been suggested and who are sure to go Are: Ex-Governor Pinchbeck, ex-Lieutenant-Governor Allain, and Colonel Lewis, of Louisians; Hill and Lynch, of Mississippi; Piedger, White, and Lyons, of Georgia; Piedger, White, and Lyons, of Georgia; Leslie, Smails, Crum, and Miller, of South Carolins; ex-Congressman Turner, of Alshama; ex-State-Senstor Lee, of Fiorida; Congressman Cheatham, ex-Congressman O'Haro, Editor Dancey of the Zion Siar, and J. H. Harriss, of North Carolins; Mesers. Napier and Sampson, of Tennessee—the former a lawyer and the latter a teacher; Principal Coroin, of Arkaness, who is atthe head of the most important negro educational institution of that State. Of course these are only a few," he added, "but they are all men of property, influence, character, and moderation. As for Virginia, we shall probably send, in addition to myself, John Mitchell, Semator Norton, Ross Hamilton, and others not yet chosen.

John Mitchell, Senator Norton, Ross Hamilton, and others not yet chosen.

"We propose to have a full, free, business-like interview with Mr. Harrison, and ask blm to give the negroes of the South his fair and generous consideration in all matters. It is not supposed that we will in any way endorse any colored man for a Cabinet position. As to the natronage and the distribution of the offices, we shall have such representations to make as will be justified by the facts. The suggestions we shall make by the facts. The suggestions we shall make will bear upon the general condition of the Republican party of the South and the proper caforcement of the fifteenth amendment.

"The colored people expect a fair share of the offices, and they intend to give President Harrison the fullest information upon the subject. The delegation will give this matter the fullest consideration, and they will make such recommendations as seem to be called for. They will make, moreover, such endorsements as they see fit in the matter of colored men seeking office. They expect their recommendations to carry weight. pect their recommendations to carry weight, since they represent the best element of the race in every State, and are thus in a position to speak anthoritatively of the worth and claims of any aspirant for office, be he white or colored."

The change in the weather raises some hope of a freeze, which would be gladly welcomed, as none of our people have gotten ice. Being some distance from the railroad we cannot get northern ice conveniently, and are dependent on the home supply.

The cases before our last court have attracted the attention of the people to the evil results of the whiskey traffices nothing class has done. Nearly a week's time was evil results of the whiskey tradic as nothing cise has done. Nearly a week's time was consumed in the trial of four of the seven indictments (the other three put off for next term) with a cost to the public of over $200 for witnesses and jury. Ministers and Good Templars have not failed to call attention to these facts as the result of whiskey license. The condition of the roads is getting to be a serious drawback to business and travel. Mr. Cecil Baker had a valuable mule seriously injured vesterday while bauling lumber to Milford. In pulling through some deep mud its ankle was so badly cut (supposed by some sharp substance buried out of sight) as to sever an artery, and but for the prompt assistance of some gentlement at Milford the animal would have bled to death.

Mr. L. L. Coghill, who has gone to Florida for his health, was improving when last heard from.

John S. Wise is a noted dog man—not a "Russian dog-faced man," but a lover of and authority upon dogs. Nobody owning high-bred dogs is quite satisfied with his nossessions until they have the approval of Wise. A favorable decision at a bench-show is not more satisfactory to dog-owners than such a decision from Mr. Wise, and his work on dogs is a resognized sutherity. He bas been president of the American Bench Association, and conducted the greatest dog tests, trials, and shows in the country.

One day on Broadway. New York, when he was strolling with a friend, Colonel Gordon, a young man stepped up to him and greeted him as "Judge Wise," He talked gibby, and John smelt bund and wondered whether there was any hayseed in his hair.

Finally he said; "See here, I think I have seen you before, but I am not a judge and I never occupied any judicial position."

"Oh, I don't mean judge of isw," was the reply. "Of course, I know you are no judge of test. I mean judge of dogs."

RARE AND VALUABLE OIL-PAINTINGS FROM MANY OF THE BEST OLD MASTERS, TOGETHER WITH THE COLLECTION OF OLD AND SCARCE WINES.

As executors of the estate of William Henry Hazail, deceased, we will sell at auction, at his late residence, No. 405 east Main street, at 10% o'clock, on THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1889.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1889.

by catalogue (catalogues of which are now ready) THE VERY VALUABLE AND LARGE COLLECTION OF FINE OIL-PAINTINGS belonging to his estate, comprising—
THE DISMAL SWAMF, an original by Regis Gipnour, whose paintings adorn the galleries of Baron Rothschild, Faris; Mrs. A. T. Siewart, New York; August Belmout, New York; the Correctan Galiery. Washington, D. C.; the Historical Society of New York; and the walls of many of the inest prominent connectaeurs and coffectors and patrons of artists of acknowledged meril.

FEEDING A ROEIN. By George Henry Broughton, nember of the National Academy.

CATSKILL MOUNTAINS. By John Frederick Expact, member of the National Academy.

And other originals of celebrated artists; together with very macy fine copies from Van Hyck, Correggio, Carlo Doici, Sturillo, Titian, Wonverman, Hais, and other painters of European reputation, embracing the Dutch, Spanish, French, and other noted schools. The collection embraces mere than seventy paintings, and is certainly the finest and most carefully-selected collection very offered at suction in fitchmond.

The study Mr. Haxall had made of artists and their paintings well entitle him to the high position he occupied as a connectaeur, and his collection fully supports his reputation.

2. The complete outsit of MACHINERY FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF ICE, with a capacity of twenty tous daily, and in good order and ready for operation.

3. All of the TOOLS. SCALES, HORSES, WAGONS, and various other articles of personal property connected with the manufacture and sale of ice.

The real exists will probable he will account to the control of the co property connected with the manufacture and sain of ice.

The real estate will probably be sold separately, either as a whole or in parcels, as may seem best at the time of sale, and as it is well suited for many other uses as well as for an ice-factory or as a cold-storage warehouse, for which, with very slight alterations, it is well adapted, the attention of manufacturers generally is invited to this sale, and if sold in parcels an opportunity is here presented to buy the vacant part of the lot for building purposes, for which it is well adapted by location, &c.

The probability is that the machinery pertaining to the maaufacture of ice will be sold in one parcel and the rest of the personal property in small lots, although the commissioners reserve the right to sell ait the personal property in a lump.

Thems: For the real estate one half cash.

the right to sell all the personal Property is hump.

TREMS: For the real estate, one half cash; belance at ax, tweive, and eighteen months for roles, with interest added and title retained. For the personal property, all sums of $100 and under cash; sums over $100 and up to $500 on sixty days' credit, and on same over $600 on four months' credit, all credit payments to be evidenced by negotiable notes, with interest added and satisfactority endorsed.
